CUENCA RECORDINGS is the dependable company that produces and distributes new commercial music products. My name is Robert Leaman Sanders {worth a Google search}. For over 40 years, I have been and still am a member in good standing with Screen Actors Guild of Hollywood, California, and The New York Musicians Union – Local Chapter.

I initiate and manage day to day music business operations here in Cuenca, Ecuador, where I have been living and working as a professional singer for the past seven years.

The following link will provide my true and informative abbreviated biography as published by the online magazine called, CUENCA HIGH LIFE:

We are in business to earn monetary profits. Because our business affairs and new original music projects deal in markets comprised of music loving people of all ages who are located in many different countries, and due to revenue collecting devices such as performance rights organizations plus online steaming platforms, scheduled monetary profits are considerably high. Multi-millions of dollars.

It is by way of a unique combinations of special music contacts and projects that has us qualifying for well-earned successes.

For example, the author of the newest legitimate book on Bob Dylan called, BOB DYLAN ON A COUCH AND FIFTY CENTS A DAY, is a close friend of mine. His name is Peter McKenzie. His newly published book is available at Amazon and is garnishing fabulous reviews! I met Peter and his parents who gave Mr. Dylan his start in New York. Here is the story:

Sony Music and their attorneys granted a publishing contract to me based on Bob Dylan's iconic TIMES THEY ARE A –CHANGIN'. I want to record and release this song with the Cuenca Symphony Orchestra accompanying me for an international release. This is one of our projects! In addition, for Frank Sinatra song fans, and because I recently secured the license to record and release FLY ME TO THE MOON, I'll have the orchestra back me up on that song as a tribute to Ol' Blue Eyes. This is another one of our CUENCA RECORDINGS projects!

In addition, another dynamic international music project our CUENCA RECORDINGS offers is centered around our new album called FREEDOM!!! Stewart, please join us!
